

Kids and Chances of A Life Time: People and Policy Matter

Announcing the Summit on Children With Disabilities

Featuring:
The Honorable Robert Williams
National Disability Rights Advocate

September 25, 2006 ~ 8:30 am - 12 pm
Manchester Community College
Arts, Sciences and Technologies Center
SBM Charitable Foundation Auditorium

Children in Connecticut who live with disabilities or complex medical conditions could have meaningful futures if systems and professions recognize that. In a compelling presentation, Robert Williams embodies the breadth of potential and the value of investing in the lives of all Connecticut children. A Senior Policy Analyst for the Association of University Centers on Disabilities and former Clinton Administration Appointee, Williams' personal and professional success serve as an excellent model for all children with disabilities or complex medical conditions.

Sponsored by: The Office of the Child Advocate, The Department of Children and Families, the Manchester Community College Institute on Disability and Community Inclusion, The Family Support Council and Friends.
